The election is only one month away.

We hope you will join us for presentations by the Democratic County-Wide Candidates: Laura Curran, Jack Schnirman and Dean Bennett. The meeting is open to the public. There is no admission fee and there will be no solicitation of contributions. Refreshments will be served.

Following presentations by each of the candidates, questions submitted by the audience will be put to the candidates. (We have also prepared a detailed issue sheet, in the form of questions. It can be downloaded by clicking here. You can reply to this email with any further questions you think should be addressed.)

Campaign literature and lawn signs will be available.

Candidates for other offices, that are up for election in Nassau County, are invited to attend and will be introduced.
